

The 2,398-Sheet Apartment

When it came time to redecorate his one-bedroom rental, Doug Meyer took no shortcuts, installing piece after piece of colored paper with the help of his brother, Gene.

BY WENDY GOODMAN

The Living Room

We initially bought paper in 61 colors and eventually chose 21 to work with," says co-designer Gene Meyer. The color blast offsets the vintage Florence Knoll sofa, silk fauteuils, and side tables designed by Gene and Doug. The painting over the sofa is by Antonio Murado; the small painting is by Philip Taaffe. The painting on the left is by Mark Sheinkman.